MANUAL OF OPERATIONS FOR THE PRESBYTERY OF FLORIDA

SECTION I – Introduction

Our Vision: To be a presbytery of strong, healthy, energetic congregations advancing the ministries of Jesus Christ.

Our Mission: To provide guidance, training, and assistance to our congregations.

Guiding Principles: The Book of Order offers the following clarity about the roles of congregations and presbyteries:

- The congregation is the church engaged in the mission of God in its particular context. Through the congregation, God's people carry out the ministries of proclamation, sharing the Sacraments, and living in covenant life with God and each other. In the life of the congregation, individual believers are equipped for the ministry of witness to the love and grace of God in and for the world. The congregation reaches out to people, communities, and the world to share the good news of Jesus Christ, to gather for worship, to offer care and nurture to God's children, to speak for social justice and righteousness, to bear witness to the truth and to the reign of God that is coming into the world. (G-1.0101)
- Councils of the church exist to help congregations and the church as a whole to be more faithful participants in the mission of Christ. (G-3.0101)
- The presbytery is responsible for the government of the church throughout its district, and for assisting and supporting the witness of congregations to the sovereign activity of God in the world, so that all congregations become communities of faith, hope, love, and witness. (G-3.0301)

Therefore, the Presbytery of Florida makes it a top priority to provide educational and training opportunities, guidance, and assistance to our congregations and leaders to build strong, healthy, energetic congregations to advance the ministries of Jesus Christ.

Antiracism Policy

Adopted by the Presbytery of Florida on May 16, 2026

In accordance with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Presbytery of Florida seeks to enable its members and congregations to give effective witness in the world to God's new creation in Jesus Christ, and to strengthen their witness to the mission of the triune God (G-3.0106). This endeavor includes mandatory antiracism training every thirty-six months, at minimum.

In light of the antiracism statement affirmed by the Presbytery of Florida in October 2020, this Presbytery reaffirms that racism is a sin which violates our commission to love one another as Jesus loves us all. We believe that we are called to advance the Kingdom of God, on earth as it is in heaven, by actively countering racism.

This Presbytery is, therefore, committed to:

- rejecting discrimination on the basis of race or ethnicity;
- taking and making opportunities to demonstrate our belief in the essential equality of all human beings as created in the image of God;
- working together as children of God for the advancement of love and peace throughout the world;
- resisting injustice in every form, in keeping with what Jesus has commanded us to do;
 - demonstrating compassion and caring in support of those who have been wronged through acts of racism;
- educating our congregations in non-discriminatory practices;
 - bearing witness to our love for Jesus and our fellow humans through congregational mission and ministries and, as individuals, in our daily lives.

The 222nd General Assembly (2016) approved a churchwide antiracism policy titled Facing Racism: A Vision of the Intercultural Community, with an accompanying study guide for use by councils and congregations. The Presbytery of Florida adopts this policy for its own use as it implements General Assembly directives to build an intercultural church in which justice and equality prevail. The Presbytery also adopts the accompanying study guide as a basis for mandatory training within its bounds. Upon adoption by the Presbytery, this policy may be used as a model or standard by sessions and congregations developing their own policies for dealing with allegations of racism within the local session's jurisdiction.

Antiracism training shall be required at least every thirty-six months for:

1. Teaching Elders and Commissioned Ruling Elders (CREs) serving congregations;
2. Teaching Elders in validated ministries;
3. Certified Christian Educators;
4. Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders elected to Presbytery service;
5. Candidates for ministry; and
6. Presbytery staff.

The Ministry of Leadership Development (MLD) shall:

1. develop antiracism training based on Facing Racism and the accompanying study guide, and provide the training at locations across the Presbytery. Components of the training may be offered at Presbytery meetings, at dedicated in-person workshops, or remotely via Zoom.
2. authorize alternate training for those unable to attend approved training held within the Presbytery.
3. maintain a record of those who complete training. This requirement shall be included in all Terms of Call and all pastoral contracts. Those who fail to complete training shall be considered “not in good standing” with the Presbytery of Florida, and the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk shall maintain a file of those so considered.

The Presbytery strongly encourages all sessions and members of congregations, especially those in leadership positions, to participate in approved antiracism training. The Presbytery will publish a training schedule annually that includes times and locations, as well as approved alternate training.

Adopted by the Presbytery of Florida on May 16, 2026

Formatted: Font: Italic

The members of the Presbytery of Florida believe we are called by God to create a safe haven for all minor persons and vulnerable adults participating in activities designed to nurture, protect, and empower them through faith and trust. This commitment includes taking appropriate steps to reduce the risk to minors and vulnerable adults in our care, hereafter referenced collectively as minors/vulnerable adults.

The following policy is established to minimize the risk to minors/vulnerable adults from being subjected to sexual, physical, or mental/emotional abuse. These procedures are also intended to respect the rights of, and afford due process to, persons accused of improper conduct.

Upon adoption by the Presbytery, this policy may be used as a model or standard by sessions and congregations developing their own policies for protection of minors and vulnerable adults within the local session's jurisdiction.

8. Teaching Elders in validated ministries;
9. Certified Christian Educators;
10. Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders elected to Presbytery service;

Sexual Abuse and Misconduct Policy

Adopted by the Presbytery of Florida on May 16, 2026

SECTION I – Introduction

The Presbytery of Florida, Inc. [hereafter, the Presbytery] recognizes and affirms that all church members, officers, nonmember employees, and volunteers of governing bodies and entities of the Presbyterian Church (USA) [hereafter, PC (USA)] are to maintain the Church's integrity at all times. Sexual abuse and misconduct are not only a violation of the principles set forth in Scripture, but also of the ministerial, pastoral, employment, and professional relationship with the Church. It is never condoned. The Presbytery adopts the following guidelines for defining sexual abuse and misconduct, establishing orderly procedures for dealing with allegations and accusations of sexual abuse and misconduct by those persons who are subject to its jurisdiction.

Upon adoption by the Presbytery, this policy may be used as a model or standard by sessions and congregations developing their own policies for dealing with allegations of sexual abuse and/or misconduct within the local session's jurisdiction.

Training relative to this policy shall be required at least every thirty-six months for:

- 13. Teaching Elders and Commissioned Ruling Elders (CREs) serving congregations;
- 14. Teaching Elders in validated ministries;
- 15. Certified Christian Educators;
- 16. Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders elected to Presbytery service;
- 17. Candidates for ministry; and
- 18. Presbytery staff.

SECTION II – Standards And Definitions

A. Standards of Conduct and Definitions:

1. Sexual abuse and misconduct within the church violate the role of those called to ordered ministry, employees, volunteers, counselors, supervisors, teachers, and advisors of any kind who are called upon to exercise integrity, sensitivity, and caring in a trust relationship (G-4.0301). Sexual abuse constitutes a misuse of authority and power that breaches Christian ethical principles by exploiting a trust relationship to gain advantage over another for personal pleasure in an abusive and unjust manner.
2. Sexual Abuse is the comprehensive term used in these guidelines to include:
 - a. Child Sexual Abuse, which includes, but is not limited to, any contact or interaction between a child and an adult when the child is being used for the sexual stimulation of the adult person or of a third person. The behavior may or may not involve touching. Sexual behavior between a child under the age of 18 and an adult is always considered forced, whether or not consented to by the child.
 - b. Sexual Harassment, which is unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
 - Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or a condition of an individual's employment or their continued status in an institution;
 - Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting that individual; or

- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
- c. Sexual Malfeasance, which is sexual conduct within a ministerial relationship (e.g., pastor with a member of the congregation) or professional relationship (e.g., employee with a person of authority; Equipping Presbyterian/Stated Clerk with a ministry member). If a congregant, student, client, or employee initiates or invites sexual content in the relationship, it is the responsibility of the pastor, church officer, teacher, or other supervisor to maintain the appropriate role and prohibit a sexual relationship. This definition is not meant to cover relationships between spouses, nor is it meant to restrict church professionals from having normal, mutual, social, intimate, or marital relationships.
- d. Rape or Sexual Battery, which is sexual contact by force, threat, or intimidation.
- e. Sexual Misconduct, which is offensive, obscene, suggestive language, or behavior that involves unwelcomed touching or fondling that is injurious to the physical, mental, or emotional health of another when committed by a person in a position of trust.

SECTION III – Reporting Requirements

1. The Presbytery regards any allegation of sexual abuse as a grave matter. In responding to allegations of sexual abuse, the Church shall seek healing and shall assure the protection of all persons. To the maximum extent possible, the privacy of all persons shall be respected and confidentiality of communications assured to every degree possible.
2. The PC(USA) assures all persons of fair procedures in the disciplinary process through the provisions of the Book of Order. These procedures shall be referenced and available throughout the handling of the allegation(s), even before the initiation of formal proceedings.
3. The Presbytery will treat any written statement alleging sexual abuse as initiating a disciplinary case and will respond according to procedures in accordance with the Book of Order. Certain cases may require special handling, such as those involving accusation of child abuse or in situations where more than one governing body of the PC(USA) is involved. (D-7.0102; also D-7.0201d and e)
4. Mandatory Reporting (G-4.0302): “Any member of this church engaged in ordered ministry and any certified Christian educator employed by this church or its congregations, shall report to ecclesiastical and civil legal authorities knowledge of harm, or the risk of harm, related to the physical abuse, neglect, and/or sexual molestation or abuse of a minor or an adult who lacks mental capacity when
 - (1) such information is gained outside of a confidential communication as defined in G-4.0301,
 - (2) she or he is not bound by an obligation of privileged communication under law, or
 - (3) she or he reasonably believes that there is risk of future physical harm or abuse.”
5. Reporting to the Presbytery: Reports should be made immediately to the Equipping Presbyterian/Stated Clerk of the Presbytery or, if the Equipping Presbyterian/Stated Clerk is the accused, to the Assistant Stated Clerk who will report the matter immediately to the Stated Clerk, Synod of South Atlantic. Reports may initially be given verbally, but must then be provided in written form. An Incident Report is attached to this policy as guidance regarding the details that should be included in the written report. A report sent to the Stated Clerk constitutes an allegation that must be investigated in accordance with the PCUSA Book of Order.
6. Reporting to Civil Authorities: Everyone is a mandated reporter. Mandated reporters are required to call 911, if a threat remains, and then the hotline. If the victim is in immediate danger, call 911 immediately, before reporting it to any other authority. If the victim is safe, immediately call the Florida Sexual Abuse Hotline at 1 (888) 956-7273. Local civil authorities should then be contacted, per guidance via the Hotline.

Civil and Presbytery investigations may proceed concurrently, as appropriate to the specific parameters of a given situation.

SECTION IV – Pastoral Response Team

A Pastoral Response Team, trained and available through the Ministry of Congregational and Pastoral Care, shall be initiated by the Equipping Presbytery/Stated Clerk through the moderator of MCPC. This Team will then follow its prescribed responsibilities to support all parties throughout the process.

Workplace and Sexual Harassment Policy

Adopted by the Presbytery of Florida on May 16, 2026

Introduction

The Presbytery of Florida is committed to maintaining a workplace free from sexual and other forms of harassment. Workplace harassment is against the law and violates the teachings of Christ. All persons have a right to a workplace free from harassment, including harassment based on age, race, faith, color, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, sex, disability, marital status, and gender identity. All Presbytery employees, volunteers, contractors, and others conducting business with the Presbytery must work in a manner that avoids harassment in the workplace.

This policy is one component of the Presbytery's commitment to a harassment-free work environment. Employees, volunteers, contractors, and others doing business with the Presbytery are urged to report workplace harassment by filing a complaint with the Presbytery of Florida. A complaint may also be filed with the appropriate agency or civil authority.

Upon adoption by the Presbytery, this policy may be used as a model or standard by sessions and congregations developing their own policies for dealing with allegations of workplace and sexual harassment within the local session's jurisdiction.

Training relative to this policy shall be required at least every thirty-six months for:

19. Teaching Elders and Commissioned Ruling Elders (CREs) serving congregations;
20. Teaching Elders in validated ministries;
21. Certified Christian Educators;
22. Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders elected to Presbytery service;
23. Candidates for ministry; and
24. Presbytery staff.

Policy:

1. The Presbytery's policy applies to all employees, volunteers, contractors, and other persons conducting business with the Presbytery. In the remainder of this document, the term "employees" refers to this collective group. The Presbytery of Florida will hereafter be referenced as "the Presbytery."
2. Harassment in any form will not be tolerated. Any individual covered by this policy who engages in sexual or other harassment or retaliation will be subject to remedial and/or disciplinary action (e.g., counseling, suspension, termination).
3. Workplace harassment is a form of discrimination, offensive, a violation of our policies, unlawful, and contrary to the teachings of Christ. It could also subject the Presbytery to liability for harm to its victims. Harassers may also be individually liable. Employees and others who engage in workplace harassment, including sexual harassment, or who allow such behavior to continue, will be penalized.
4. Unlawful workplace harassment is not limited to the physical workplace or event, itself, nor is it limited to work or event hours.

5. The Presbytery will respond to all complaints of sexual harassment in accordance with the Book of Order. The Presbytery will keep the investigation confidential to the extent possible. All employees, as defined in Section 1, are expected to cooperate with investigations into sexual and workplace harassment.
6. Employees are required to report all complaints they receive, or any harassment that they observe or become aware of, to the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. The Presbytery will provide all employees with a complaint form for reporting an incident of harassment.
7. Retaliation Prohibition: No person covered by this policy shall be subject to adverse action for reporting an incident of harassment, providing information, or otherwise assisting in any investigation of a harassment complaint. The Presbytery will not tolerate retaliation against anyone who, in good faith, reports or provides information about suspected harassment. Any Presbytery employee who retaliates against anyone involved in a harassment investigation will be subjected to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. All employees who believe they have been subject to such retaliation should inform a supervisor, manager, or the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. All employees who believe they have been targeted of such retaliation may also seek relief in other available forums, as noted in the Legal Protections section below.
8. This policy must be provided to all employees, posted on the website, and posted prominently at all work locations to the extent practicable. It must also be included in the Presbytery Manual of Operations.

What is “Workplace Harassment?”

Workplace harassment includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Nonverbal behavior, including distribution, display, or discussion of any written or graphic material that ridicules, denigrates, insults, belittles, or shows hostility, aversion, or disrespect toward an individual or group because of national origin, race, color, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, pregnancy, appearance, disability, sexual identity, marital, or other protected status

Offensive or unwelcome comments, including epithets, slurs, taunting, purposeful lies, or negative stereotyping about a person’s nationality, origin, race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, body, and/or disability

Hostile environments that create an offensive or unpleasant work or worship environment through the use of epithets, slurs, taunting, purposeful lies, or negative stereotyping, delivered in person or through social media or other means

For a claim of hostile work environment, such conduct must be subjectively abusive and objectively severe and pervasive enough to create a work environment that a reasonable person would find hostile or abusive. Several factors are considered to determine whether the conduct is severe and pervasive: frequency and severity of the conduct, whether it was physically threatening, humiliating, or an offensive utterance; whether it unreasonably interfered with work performance or the victim’s psychological well-being; and whether the harasser was a superior in the organization. None of these are necessarily conclusive alone, but rather are to be used as factors in making a determination.

The definition of workplace harassment does not include reasonable challenges to work performance or negative job-related feedback, nor does it apply to reasonable discussions or respectful expressions of opinion about various convictions or beliefs.

What is “Sexual Harassment?”

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct that is either of a sexual nature or directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex when:

- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment, even when the reporting individual is not the intended target of the sexual harassment;
- Such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or service; or
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions that affect an individual’s employment or service.

A sexually hostile work environment includes, but is not limited to, words, signs, jokes, pranks, intimidation, or physical violence of a sexual nature, or that are directed at an individual because of that individual’s sex. Sexual harassment also consists of:

- any unwanted verbal or physical advances;
- sexually-explicit derogatory statements; or
- sexually discriminatory remarks made by someone that are offensive or objectionable to the recipient, cause the recipient discomfort or humiliation, or interfere with the recipient’s or another’s job performance.

Sexual harassment also occurs when a person in authority attempts to trade job benefits for sexual favors. This can include hiring, promotion, continued employment/service, or any other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment/service. This is also called “quid pro quo” harassment.

An employee who feels harassed should report it so that any violation of this policy can be corrected promptly. Any sexually-oriented harassing conduct, even a single incident, can and shall be addressed under this policy.

Examples of Sexual Harassment

The following list includes, but is not limited to, acts that may be deemed as sexual harassment:

- Physical acts of a sexual nature, such as:
 - o Touching, pinching, patting, kissing, hugging, grabbing, poking, or brushing against another employee’s body;
 - o Rape, sexual battery, molestation, or attempts to commit these assaults
- Unwanted sexual advances or propositions, such as:
 - o Subtle or obvious pressure for unwelcome sexual activities;
 - o Sexual grooming or requests for sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt threats regarding the target’s job performance evaluation, a promotion or other job benefits or detriments.
- Sexually-oriented gestures, noises, remarks, jokes, or comments about a person’s sexuality, sexual appeal, or sexual experience

- Sex stereotyping, when conduct, personality traits, or physical characteristics may not conform to other people's perceptions about how individuals of a particular sex should act or look
- Sexual or discriminatory displays or publications anywhere in the workplace, such as pictures, posters, calendars, graffiti, objects, promotional materials, reading materials, or other materials that any observer finds sexually demeaning or pornographic, including such sexual displays on workplace computers or cell phones, or sharing such displays while in the workplace
- Hostile actions taken against an individual because of that individual's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or transgender status, such as:
 - o Interfering with, destroying, or damaging a person's workstation, tools or equipment, or otherwise interfering with the individual's ability to perform the job;
 - o Sabotaging an individual's work; or
 - o Bullying, yelling, or name-calling

Retaliation

Unlawful retaliation is any action that could discourage a worker from coming forward to file or support a harassment claim. Adverse action need not be job-related or occur in the workplace to constitute unlawful retaliation.

Protected activity occurs when a person has:

- filed a complaint of workplace harassment, either to the Presbytery or to a civil authority;
- testified or assisted in a proceeding involving workplace harassment;
- opposed workplace harassment by making a verbal or informal complaint to the Presbytery or a higher council;
- reported that another employee has been harassed; or
- encouraged a fellow employee to report harassment.

Even if the alleged harassment does not rise to the level of a violation of law, the individual is protected from retaliation if the person had a good faith belief that the practices were unlawful and immoral. The retaliation provision is not intended to protect persons making intentionally false charges of harassment.

Reporting Workplace Harassment

Preventing and reporting harassment is everyone's responsibility. The Presbytery cannot address harassment unless it is aware of it. An employee who has observed or been subjected to behavior that may constitute harassment is morally obligated to report such behavior to the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk or, if the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk is the accused, to the Assistant Stated Clerk who will report the matter immediately to the Stated Clerk, Synod of South Atlantic.

Reports of harassment may initially be made verbally, but must be subsequently filed in writing in accordance with D-4.0102 and D-7.02. A form for filing a written complaint is attached to this policy and available on the Presbytery website.

Supervisory Responsibilities

Upon receiving a complaint or information about suspected/alleged harassment, observing what may be harassing behavior, or suspecting that harassment is occurring, all moderators in the Presbytery are required to report such suspected harassment to the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk of the Presbytery or, if the Equipping Presbyter/Stated Clerk is the accused, to the Assistant Stated Clerk who shall report the matter immediately to the Stated Clerk, Synod of South Atlantic.

Individuals who fail to report suspected harassment or otherwise knowingly allow it to continue will be subject to discipline. They may also be subject to discipline for engaging in retaliation.

Complaint and Investigation of Harassment

All written reports sent to the Stated Clerk constitute an allegation and must be fully investigated. Investigations will be conducted in accordance with the Book of Order, either as a remedial complaint, if filed against a congregation, committee, or commission (D-4.0102, D-4.02); or as a disciplinary process, if filed against an individual (D-7.0102, D-7.02).

Contacting Legal Authorities

In accordance with G-4.0302 and D-7.0501, if harassment of a minor or an adult who lacks mental capacity is alleged, or if the alleged harassment involves unwanted physical touching, coerced physical confinement, or coerced sex acts, any member of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) engaged in ordered ministry, and any certified Christian educator working within or for the Presbytery or its congregations, shall report such conduct to ecclesiastical and civil legal authorities.

Reasonable Suspicion is a subjective criterion that refers to a belief or opinion based on facts or circumstances of sexual abuse that are sufficient enough for a prudent person to want to inquire further, to take protective action, or report to authorities.

It may include (1) inquiry into facts and circumstances, (2) possible disciplinary action (administrative or judicial or both), (3) pastoral care for accuser/victims and their families and others, and (4) pastoral care and rehabilitation for the accused and care for their families.

Outside experts may be contracted to provide this training. These trainings shall further cover:

PAID OR VOLUNTEER COUNSELORS AT DOGWOOD ACRES

Briefly, the State of Florida says: Personnel for the purposes of screening for summer day camps and summer 24-hour camps includes owners, operators, employees, and volunteers working in summer day camps and summer 24-hour camps providing care for children. Volunteers who assist on an intermittent basis for less than 10 hours per month do not need to be screened if a person who meets the screening requirement is always present and has the volunteer in his or her line of sight.

An employer may not hire, select, or otherwise allow an employee to have contact with any vulnerable person that would place the employee in a role that requires background screening.

There are two levels of screening—Level 1 and Level 2.

Level 1 Background Screening requires an employment history check, statewide criminal correspondence checks through the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) (name-based check), and a check of the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website and may include local law enforcement checks.

Level 2 Background Screening requires fingerprinting for statewide criminal history checks through FDLE and national criminal history checks through the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and may include local law enforcement checks.

For further explanation of background screening requirements for persons who wish to work as a camp counselor for remuneration or as a volunteer at Dogwood Acres, please refer to those stated at: https://www.myflfamilies.com/programs/backgroundscreening/faqs_camps.shtml, (The Florida Department of Children and Families); and The State of Florida statutes found in Title XXXI (Labor), Chapter 435, under Employment Screening, and related references.

The level of interaction with minors and vulnerable persons will determine whether a Level 1 or Level 2 Background Screening is required.

~~The level of interaction with minors and vulnerable persons, and the type of engagement as a paid or volunteer staff person will determine whether a Level 1 or Level 2 Background Screening is required.~~

EXPECTATIONS FOR PERSONS WORKING WITH MINORS, AND/OR VULNERABLE ADULTS

~~It is the policy of the Presbytery of Florida to provide events free of any form of sexual abuse and misconduct, including sexual intimidation by any volunteer or presbytery employee contacts. Sexual abuse and misconduct, in any form, is unacceptable behavior and is subject to disciplinary action. Sexual abuse and misconduct includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome and unsolicited sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, discriminatory torment based on gender or sexual preference, and other undesirable verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, manifested in person or via one (1) or more types of electronic media.~~

~~In particular, sexual abuse and misconduct has occurred if:~~

- ~~• submission to any kind of sexual abuse and misconduct is an explicit or implicit term or condition of participation in an event;~~
- ~~• submission to, or rejection of, sexually harassing behavior is used as the basis of employment or other personnel decisions affecting the recipient of the behavior;~~
- ~~• Sexual abuse and misconduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the recipient's participation in an event or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.~~

~~Any presbytery employee or volunteer who believes, in good faith, that there has been a violation of this policy should report the perceived violation as soon as possible. If the perceived violation occurs during a presbytery sponsored event, the matter must be reported to the coordinator of the event. If the event is sponsored by the Ministry of Dogwood Acres (MDWA), the Director of Dogwood Acres, the MDWA Chair, or a member of the MDWA Personnel Team must be contacted as soon as possible. Every complaint received by any one of these persons must be immediately communicated to the Stated Clerk and General Presbyter for action in accordance with the presbytery's policy and procedures on sexual misconduct.~~

MANDATORY EVENT RULES FOR WORKING WITH MINORS AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

~~The Presbytery of Florida shall ensure that the following measures be in place and actions taken for each event or activity of the presbytery involving minors and/or vulnerable adults.~~

- ~~1. Supervision: There will always be one (1), and when feasible two (2) adult workers present in groups of minors and vulnerable adults.~~
- ~~2. Ratios: It is preferable that the adult to minor ratio for events is 2:17. There shall also be one adult of each gender when there is more than one gender in a group. Only in emergency situations may the ratio and gender diversity be compromised.~~

3. ~~View windows and open doors: When minors and adult workers or volunteers are in a room, if the door is closed, the door must have a view window installed. If no view window is installed in the door, the door must remain open at all times.~~
4. ~~Adult workers/caregivers should respect the privacy of the minors to whom they provide care. Responsible use of digital devices and cell phones is required in all situations (e.g. Taking age-appropriate photographs and movies, not taking photographs of minors who are not fully clothed). Adults and minors are required at all times to wear appropriate attire. Training is to be provided to understand age-appropriate behaviors that need to be reported to a caregiver or leader of the event.~~

 - g. ~~Telling a minor to keep something secret told to the minor.~~

 - 1) ~~Physical abuse: hit, spank, shake, slap, unnecessarily restrain.~~
 - 2) ~~Verbal abuse: degrade, threaten, or curse.~~
 - 3) ~~Sexual abuse: expose oneself, or engage in sexually oriented conversations.~~
 - 4) ~~Shame, humiliate, act cruelly toward others.~~
 - 5) ~~Neglect: withhold food, water, shelter.~~
 - l. ~~Permitting minors/vulnerable adults to engage in hazing, bullying, derogatory name-calling, ridicule, humiliation, or sexual activity.~~

ALLEGATION REPORTING

- ~~All adults working with minors and/or vulnerable adults are to be completely familiar with the procedures for reporting alleged abuse. Please see <https://www.flsenate.gov/Laws/Statutes/2018/39.201> for State of Florida mandates for reporting allegations of abuse.~~

Appendix B

REVISED SEXUAL ABUSE AND MISCONDUCT GUIDELINES

Adopted 10/22/96, Amended 2/14/98 and Revised 10/13/12 and 1/26/13

SECTION I—Introduction

The Presbytery of Florida, Inc. [hereafter, the presbytery] recognizes and affirms that all church members, officers, nonmember employees, and volunteers of governing bodies and entities of the Presbyterian Church (USA) [hereafter, PC (USA)] are to maintain the Church's integrity at all times. Sexual abuse and misconduct are not only a violation of the principles set forth in Scripture, but also of the ministerial, pastoral, employment, and professional relationship with the Church. It is never condoned. The presbytery adopts the following guidelines for defining sexual abuse and misconduct establishing orderly procedures for dealing with allegations and accusations of sexual abuse and misconduct by those persons who are subject to its jurisdiction.

Also, the presbytery adopts these guidelines in the hope that Sessions of the presbytery will use them as a model or standard for developing their own particular definitions and procedures for dealing with allegations and accusations of sexual abuse and misconduct by those persons who are subject to the local Session's jurisdiction.

SECTION II—Standards And Definitions

A. Standards of Conduct and Definitions:

1. Sexual abuse and misconduct within the church violate the role of those called to ordered ministry, employees, volunteers, counselors, supervisors, teachers, and advisors of any kind who are called upon to exercise integrity, sensitivity, and caring in a trust relationship. Sexual abuse constitutes a misuse of authority and power that breaches Christian ethical principles by misusing a trust relation to gain advantage over another for personal pleasure in an abusive, exploitative, and unjust manner.
2. Sexual Abuse is the comprehensive term used in these guidelines to include:
 - a. Child Sexual Abuse, which includes, but is not limited to, any contact or interaction between a child and an adult when the child is being used for the sexual stimulation of the adult person or of a third person. The behavior may or may not involve touching. Sexual behavior between a child under the age of 18 and an adult is always considered forced whether or not consented to by the child.
 - b. Sexual Harassment, which is unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
 - Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or a condition of an individual's employment or their continued status in an institution;
 - Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or

- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
- e. Sexual Malfesance, which is sexual conduct within a ministerial relationship (e.g., clergy with a member of the congregation) or professional relationship (e.g., lay employee with a church member or general presbyter with a ministry member who may be a lay person, a minister, or an elder). If the parishioner, student, client, or employee initiates or invites sexual content in the relationship, it is the responsibility of the pastor, counselor, officer, or supervisor to maintain the appropriate role and prohibit a sexual relationship. This definition is not meant to cover relationships between spouses, nor is it meant to restrict church professionals from having normal, mutual, social, intimate, or marital relationships.
- d. Rape or Sexual Battery, which is sexual contact by force, threat, or intimidation.
- e. Sexual Misconduct, which is offensive, obscene, suggestive language, or behavior that involves unwelcomed touching or fondling that is injurious to the physical or emotional health of another when committed by a person in a position of trust constituting a breach of that trust.

SECTION III—Reporting Requirements

A. Expectations and Reporting

1. The presbytery regards any allegation of sexual abuse as a grave matter. In responding to allegations of sexual abuse, the Church should seek healing and should assure the protection of all persons. To the maximum extent possible, the privacy of persons should be respected and confidentiality of communications guaranteed.
2. The PC (USA) assures all persons of fair procedures in the disciplinary process through the provisions of the Book of Order from the section on Church Discipline. These procedures should be referenced and available throughout the handling of the allegations even before the initiation of formal proceedings.
3. The presbytery will treat any written statement alleging sexual abuse as initiating a disciplinary case and will respond according to procedures provided in the Church Discipline from the Book of Order. Certain kinds of cases may require special handling, such as those involving accusation of child abuse or in situations where more than one governing body of the PC (USA) is involved.
4. Mandatory Reporting (G-4.0302): “Any member of this church engaged in ordered ministry and any certified Christian educator employed by this church or its congregations, shall report to ecclesiastical and civil legal authorities knowledge of harm, or the risk of harm, related to the physical abuse, neglect, and/or sexual molestation or abuse of a minor or an adult who lacks mental capacity when
 - (1) such information is gained outside of a confidential communication as defined in G-4.0301,
 - (2) she or he is not bound by an obligation of privileged communication under law, or
 - (3) she or he reasonably believes that there is risk of future physical harm or abuse.”

SECTION IV—Pastoral Response Team

A presbytery Pastoral Response Team (PRT) shall be established to assure that a caring response is made to all allegations of sexual abuse in the presbytery. The team shall be responsible to all persons who are affected by an alleged incident of abuse. Its responsibilities include needs assessment and the identification and coordination of resources.

- ~~1. Composition of the Pastoral Response Team: The PRT shall consist of three to five persons, diverse as to gender and reflective, at least to some extent, of the ethnic background of both the accuser/victim and the offender. The membership shall wherever possible reflect professional expertise and/or extensive experience in the following areas:~~
 - ~~a. Psychological counseling, with particular experience in the area of sexual abuse and its aftermath, as well as pastoral care.~~
 - ~~b. Child advocacy.~~
 - ~~c. Conflict management and resolution, particularly in the religious community setting. All members of the PRT shall be members of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and familiar with its policies and procedures, particularly in the area of sexual abuse. Members of a specific team shall not be members of the congregation in which an allegation arises. Presbytery executive staff members shall be prohibited from membership on the PRT.~~
- ~~2. Sources of members for the Pastoral Response Team: The Ministry of Congregational Health (MCH) shall maintain a list of persons who meet the above qualifications and who are willing to serve as needed. Members shall serve no less than three years in staggered terms and will be oriented to these guidelines by the Ministry of Congregational Health.~~

~~When a PRT is needed, it shall be appointed from the list by the moderator of the MCH within five days. The members of each specific PRT shall elect their own chairperson. Administrative costs for the PRT shall be borne by the presbytery.~~
- ~~3. Task of the Pastoral Response Team: The task of the PRT is to insure, insofar as it is possible, that competent pastoral care is offered to all persons involved when there is an allegation of sexual abuse. Normally, that would involve oversight and referral by the team.~~
- ~~4. Provision of Intensive Pastoral Care: It is the general policy of the presbytery that provision of intensive pastoral care in these situations is best rendered by someone relatively distant from the situation and by someone who, by reason of training and experience, is competent to deal with the complexities of such situations. If persons involved in an instance of alleged sexual abuse are insistent that the local pastor is the one to offer intensive pastoral care, or if the local pastor is insistent that the provision of such pastoral care is his/her prerogative, then the PRT would take care to monitor the situation. In such cases, the local pastor should have ongoing and regular supervision of his/her work by a professional recognized by the Board of Pensions as competent to offer psychotherapy to members of the Benefits Plan (i.e. psychiatrist, clinical psychologist, clinical social worker, or Fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors).~~
- ~~5. Tenure of the Pastoral Response Team: A PRT will disband on its own initiative when, in its judgment, the need for its care is ended and will so inform the Ministry of Congregational Health. If in the judgment of the PRT its continued existence is necessary beyond six (6) months, the PRT will petition the Ministry of Congregational Health for a six (6) months extension of its mandate.~~
- ~~6. Media Contact with the Pastoral Response Team: Questions from the media shall not be addressed by any member of the PRT. Any inquiries from the media regarding an incident of sexual abuse are to be directed to a designated official of the presbytery.~~

FINANCIAL POLICY

I. Functions: With the Ministry of Presbytery Operations' approval, the presbytery shall employ a part-time accountant for bookkeeping services. The accountant shall provide regular financial statements to the Ministry of Presbytery Operations, to ministry chairs and to churches in such form as approved by the Ministry of Presbytery Operations.

II. Internal Controls:

A. Receipts: All remittances to presbytery shall be received by a staff member approved by the treasurer. That staff member shall record the source and amount of all receipts, be responsible for the safekeeping and prompt deposit in the appropriate account and transmit the deposit amount and source to the accountant. Whenever cash is received, a written acknowledgement is to be issued by the person receiving those monies and either given to the person giving such monies or sent by mail. The accountant then shall be responsible for the proper accounting for all such funds received. Undesignated gifts to the presbytery shall be utilized in a manner to be determined by the Ministry of Presbytery Operations. Bank reconciliation will be done monthly by the accountant and subsequently reviewed by the general presbyter. The treasurer shall be responsible for checking to ascertain that all funds received are properly deposited and accounted for at least monthly.

B. Expenditures: All expenditures shall be validated by at least two authorized signatures: one on the check and a different signature on the authorizing voucher or by committee minutes. The authorized signature(s) on a check is(are) that of the general presbyter, presbytery administrator and a member of the Ministry of Presbytery Operations so designated by the ministry, and the treasurer. An authorized signature on a voucher may be by the appropriate presbytery committee chair or staff person. Approval of vouchers and signatures on the checks shall be based on funds being available, the expenditure being for a valid presbytery purpose, and the expenditure being charged to the proper account in the budget approved by presbytery. In no case shall a check issued to an individual be signed by that same individual. All checks over three thousand dollars ($3,000) are to have two (2) authorized signatures, one of them to be either that of the treasurer or of the general presbyter.

In addition to the above approvals, the treasurer and general presbyter will review monthly all credit card payments and all payments to third parties which specifically benefit a single staff member (i.e. travel, in-service education, etc.). Any item which in the treasurer's judgment cannot be justified as a legitimate presbytery expense shall be referred to the appropriate ministry for review by the treasurer. If it is not deemed to be a legitimate expense, it shall be reimbursed to the presbytery by the purchaser, unless subsequently approved by the Ministry of Presbytery Operations.

The accountant shall regularly provide to each ministry moderator a report of all individual expenditures charged to the budgetary accounts of that team. Checks shall be written for signature by the accountant as needed, with payroll checks being written twice monthly, just prior to the

In the investment of funds, safety and liquidity as well as maximum return shall be considered.

IX. Capital Funds Policy: This policy is intended to give the Presbytery of Florida guidelines for the frequency and management of capital campaigns and is intended to give Ministries of the presbytery rules for proposing campaigns.

A capital campaign is any solicitation of funds for purposes not included in the operating budget of the presbytery.

The presbytery is united in its mission and ministry; its work is coordinated by the Ministry Coordinating Council and carried out by presbytery ministries and task forces and congregations. This policy stresses the unity of our mission and ministry. The presbytery will ordinarily conduct a capital campaign every five to ten years in order to raise significant money for its capital needs.

The primary needs are generally (but not limited to): land and/or staff for new worshipping communities and congregational support, the outdoor ministry of Dogwood Acres, and endowments to support the various missions and ministry of the presbytery. Organizations, institutions and entities outside the presbytery may or may not be included in the presbytery capital campaign by request, and at the discretion of the presbytery. [Some examples of such organizations are Montreat, higher education, Thornwell Home and School, etc.]

The presbytery may combine several different needs into one campaign, and will not ordinarily conduct two simultaneous capital campaigns or a second campaign within two years of the conclusion of the first. Presbytery may approve a second campaign, or concurrent campaign, by two-thirds vote.

The Ministry Coordinating Council shall create a special campaign committee for each capital campaign and will ordinarily hire outside fundraising counsel or staff with significant and proven capital campaign experience. The majority of the cost of the campaign will be borne by the campaign, with the Ministry Coordinating Council providing start-up funds from the presbytery's budget.

Following the current policies of the presbytery, presbytery ministries may publish "wish lists" of capital items needed for their mission and ministry upon approval by the Ministry of Presbytery Operations.

Presbytery Ministries may not conduct their own capital and/or fund request campaigns without approval of the presbytery upon recommendation of the Ministry Coordinating Council. Congregations who require assistance with operating support shall make their request through the Ministry of Congregational Health.

PRESBYTERY OF FLORIDA
PRESBYTERY MANUAL OF OPERATIONS

APPENDIX ~~DE~~

USE OF FUNDS RECEIVED FROM THE SALE OF PROPERTIES AND OTHER MONIES PLACED IN THE RESERVE FUND

From time to time, the Presbytery of Florida may come into possession of unbudgeted and undesignated money. Sources of such money include but are not limited to the net proceeds from the sale of property held in trust by member congregations of the presbytery, unspent budgeted income, and undesignated gifts, and are immediately put into the presbytery's Reserve Fund. This policy is set to determine how such funds are to be managed by the presbytery through its Ministry of Presbytery Operations.

A Biblical and Theological Rationale

There are two rudimentary Biblical principles that guide our use of money. Both come from Jesus although they are implicit throughout Scripture. The first is that earthly wealth as we know it, is essentially illusory and passing if not used for God's plan and purpose. "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth" Jesus tells us, "where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal." (Matthew 6:19) We are never to accumulate wealth for wealth's sake.

The second is that believers are encouraged to take whatever worldly wealth they do have and understand it as something with which they are entrusted. While wealth is essentially transitory, it is also something given to us from God to invest wisely, multiply and, ultimately, glorify the same One who is the Giver of all good things. (James 1:17) Jesus' teachings in the parable of the talents (Matthew 25:14-30) and the parable of the shrewd manager (Luke 16:1-3) empower us to do this.

As stated in the Confession of 1967, we know that "God instructs his church and equips it for mission. When carried on in fidelity to the Scriptures and dependence upon the Holy Spirit, people hear the word of God and accept and follow Christ."

Fund Investment

On behalf of the Presbytery of Florida, the Ministry of Presbytery Operations shall establish an invested corpus, the earnings of which shall be reinvested. The principle shall be made available as grants to presbytery programs which propose to support congregational and/or presbytery development, redevelopment, and/or transformation. Additionally, the equivalent of up to one half of any year's budget shall be held in reserve for emergency budgetary use and/or to zero-balance the current year's budget before closing the books for that year.

Definition of Net Proceeds From Property Sales

Net proceeds are any monies remaining from the sale of any real estate and other property held in trust for the PCUSA which has been closed after (a) all financial obligations of the congregation have been paid; (b) the presbytery has been reimbursed for any funds disbursed on behalf of the congregation during or after the dissolution process; and (c) at the discretion of the presbytery administrative commission involved, a tithe (10%) of net unrestricted assets may be distributed to Presbyterian causes and institutions that have been meaningful to the life of the congregation and/or local ecumenical and benevolent causes that have been meaningful to the life of the congregation. Any net proceeds shall be placed in the Reserve Fund. In the event that property is leased with an option to purchase, net proceeds will become available when the purchase is consummated. Income from such leases will be used to offset expenses related to maintaining the property. Any remaining income from such leases shall be added to the Reserve Fund.

Definition of Unspent Budgeted Income

The books for any year's presbytery budget shall be closed no later than January 31st of the following year. Any income remaining from the presbytery budget after all expenses have been paid for that calendar year shall be placed in the Reserve Fund.

Definition of Undesignated Gifts

An undesignated gift can come in several forms: money, real estate, and other property. It can come from someone living or from a Will after someone's death. Any undesignated money shall be placed in the reserve Fund. Any real estate or other property shall be sold as soon as possible and monies from those sales shall be placed in the Reserve Fund.

Definition of Other Unbudgeted Income

Other kinds of income not related to the annual budget or other existing presbytery funds, shall be placed in the Reserve Fund.

Division of Income from the Reserve Fund

After the equivalent of one half of the current year's budget is set aside, which can be used to zero-balance the current year's budget before closing the books for that year, 10% of the remainder shall be set aside for special, unbudgeted presbytery projects defined by that policy, 50% shall be assigned to the Ministry of Congregational Health to be used as defined by their policy for such funds, and 40% shall be assigned to the Ministry of New Congregation Formation to be used as defined by their policy. Any growth in the Reserve Fund shall be distributed pro rata.

UNBUDGETED PRESBYTERY PROJECTS

Ordinarily, each committee of presbytery will have submitted a budget request for the next budgetary year to include monies needed for doing the committee's work. But, on occasion, a new programmatic idea may arise after the annual budget has been set that a committee would like to pursue.

A portion of the Presbytery Reserve Fund has been set aside to provide financial support when such occasions arise.

Project Application Schedule

Proposals may be submitted for review at any time during the current budgetary cycle to the presbytery office. The Ministry of Presbytery Operations shall review the application at its next scheduled meeting. Responses shall be made within 90 days of the request.

Project Application Form

The application form is found on the Presbytery of Florida website or a copy may be picked up or emailed upon request.

PRESBYTERY OF FLORIDA

Presbytery Manual of Operations

Appendix ~~EG~~

PERSONNEL POLICY

This Personnel Policy of the Presbytery of Florida is divided into ~~23~~ sections: overall policies that apply to all employees of the Presbytery of Florida, policies that are specific to the operation of the called and lay staff of the presbytery, ~~and policies that are specific to the operation of Dogwood Acres (a camp/retreat center that is owned by the Presbytery of Florida). The reason for this format is that due to the nature of the operation of Dogwood Acres, there need to be policies that are slightly different in content and execution from the policies of the presbytery at large.~~

Overall Policies

I. Equal Employment Opportunity

The Presbytery of Florida will recruit, hire, call, train, and promote all persons in all job classifications without regard to race; color; national origin; sex; age; marital status; disability; or religious affiliation, except when religious affiliation is determined to be a bona fide occupational qualification.

II. Definitions

A. Presbytery of Florida (presbytery) is a regional governing body made up of local churches of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

~~C. Ministry of Dogwood Acres (MDWA) is a committee of the presbytery that oversees the operation of DWA.~~

~~D. MDWA Personnel Team is a sub-committee of the MDWA that is responsible for the personnel decisions associated with DWA.~~

~~E.B. General-Equipping Presbyter~~ is the head of the presbytery.

~~F. DWA Director (Director) is the head of DWA.~~

III. Exempt and Non-Exempt Categories

The Fair Labor Standards Act, passed on June 25, 1938, established the minimum wage and maximum hours requirements and defined the kinds of work “exempt” from those requirements. Under the Act, “non-exempt” refers to a job for which the employer must pay at least minimum wage for the position and must give overtime pay for hours worked in excess of the weekly hours for which a person is employed. “Exempt” employees are not paid overtime.

IV. Sexual Abuse and Misconduct, Workplace Harassment

A. It is the policy of the presbytery ~~and DWA~~ to maintain a workplace free of any form of sexual abuse and misconduct and harassment (abuse), including sexual intimidation by any presbytery

1 ~~or DWA~~ employee or by non-employee work contacts. ~~Sexual abuse and misconduct~~Abuse, in
2 any form, is unacceptable behavior within the workplace and is subject to disciplinary action.

- 4 B. ~~Sexual abuse and misconduct~~Abuse includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome and unsolicited
5 sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, discriminatory torment based on gender, ~~or~~ sexual 6 preference, ~~and~~ other undesirable verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature,
7 ~~threatening or degrading comments of any kind~~ manifested in person or via one (1) or more
8 types of electronic media. In particular, ~~sexual abuse and misconduct~~ has occurred if:
 - 10 • submission to any kind of sexual abuse and misconduct is an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment;
 - 11 • submission to, or rejection of, sexually harassing behavior is used as the basis of 12 employment or other personnel decisions affecting the recipient of the behavior;
 - 13 • ~~Sexual~~ abuse and misconduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the 14 recipient's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work 15 environment.
